

Trailblazing the OUTRAGEOUS OUTDOORS

Pack your gear for this vacation, because here in Visalia, adventure is 'in our nature.' Try one of these outdoor excursions that is so accessible you'll be able to fill your day full of hunting, hiking, horseback riding, fishing, golfing, biking, or another outdoor excursion and still have time to unwind with a dinner and a late-evening stroll downtown. Then, save the river rafting, canoeing, skiing, ice skating and swimming for tomorrow!

Sequoia Shuttle:

Enjoying Sequoia National Park has never been easier! We'll do the driving while you relax aboard the Shuttle on a journey from Visalia through Sequoia groves in the nation's second oldest National Park. Once inside the park, you'll benefit from free in-park routes that take visitors to popular destinations including the General Sherman Tree, Moro Rock, Crescent Meadow and more!

Whitewater Rafting:

When you ride the Kaweah's Main Fork you'll experience thrilling rapids and steep drops—Mother Nature's own rollercoaster ride! Contact the CVB for a private tour or recommendation of certified outfitters.

Pixley Wildlife Refuge:

As home to more than a dozen species of mammals and reptiles, and habitat for waterfowl and grassland bird species, this refuge is the perfect place to watch nature come alive. Take a relaxing walk along the 1.5 mile trail, lined with interpretive stations or observe the Sandhill Cranes roosting in the wetlands from September-January, where more than 6,000 have been spotted at one time!

Mineral King Adventure:

Take a scenic drive to Mineral King in Sequoia National Park for sweeping views and vistas of the East Fork of the Kaweah River and adjacent mountains. The road is not for the faint of heart, but some of the nation's most stunning high country waits to reward visitors who make the trek. Call the CVB today for more information or visit nps.gov/seki
